

Assistant Solicitor, East Yorkshire 1-2 yrs PQE

The Company

Kingston Communications is an established UK Communications group with businesses involved in telecoms network operations and service provision. Recent rapid expansion reflects a focus on its national business communications capabilities and new media divisions. The Company is looking for a highly commercial and focused lawyer to support two key areas of its business; The East Yorkshire division, responsible for the provision and management of the Company's Regional Residential Telecommunications and Data Network. And the Business Services Division, which enables companies to exploit the power of advanced communication services by providing end-to-end telecommunication and IT solutions via a broad range of products and services such as voice, data and IP, contact centre and hosting solutions.

The Role

This is an exciting and varied commercial role with an emphasis upon telecommunications and IT contracts. Day to day responsibilities will include drafting standard and bespoke commercial agreements for residential and business customers, suppliers and other sub-contractors, providing comprehensive legal advice across the business and supporting the Senior Lawyers within the department.

The Person

You will have between 1-2 years ppe, gained from either a reputable In-House department or well-regarded commercial firm. Relevant IT contract experience and knowledge of service agreements, Data Protection and Consumer Credit legislation would be a distinct advantage. You will be flexible and pragmatic, with strong planning, organisational and project management skills and will be able to demonstrate commercial acumen. Benefits include a car, bonus and pension.
